

CURRICULUM VITAE

Phillip H. Sandro, Ph.D.

Home telephone (651-771-8906)
E-mail psandro@hecua.org

EDUCATION

Ph.D. Economics, New School for Social Research, 1991.

Fields of
Concentration: Economic Development and Planning
Economic History

Dissertation: "Expected Employment Effects of Public-Sector
Import Substitution in Chicago."
Committee: Dr. Ross Thomson (Chair), Dr. David Gordon, Dr. Ira
Katznelson, Dr. Charles Tilly.

M.A. Economics, New School for Social Research, 1985.

B.A. History, Cum Laude, Macalester College, 1974.
Birdie Gonsoulin Labor Studies Program, Midwest
Center for Labor Research, Chicago, 1994.

EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE

1994-present Senior Program Director and Director/Faculty of Metro Urban Studies Term-Higher Education
Consortium for Urban Affairs, Inc. St. Paul, MN.

Current Adjunct Professor of Economics-College of St.
Catherine

2004-Fall Visiting Program Director/Faculty-Scandinavian
Urban Studies Term, HECUA, University of Oslo,
Oslo, Norway.

1989-1994 Faculty, Associated Colleges of the Midwest Urban Studies Program. Economics.

1989-present Research Consultant.

Research and technical assistance in economic development, infrastructure, employment and training and welfare.

1986- 1989 Director of Policy Research, Mayor's Office of Employment and Training, City of Chicago, Harold Washington Administration.

Coordinated employment policy research for six development departments. Member of the Development Sub-cabinet which formulated the administration's development policy. Provided econometric forecasting on impact of alternative development projects. Member of the team that formulated and implemented reform process for Chicago Public Schools.

1983-1985 Instructor, Microeconomic Analysis, Graduate Faculty, New School for Social Research. Courses taught while pursuing Ph.D.

1980-82 Project Director of Anti-Racism Project, New York City Board of Education. (While pursuing Ph.D.)

Planned, implemented and evaluated programs whose purpose was to prevent violence in two racially-troubled city high schools. Responsibilities also included anti-racism curriculum development.

1975-1979 Director of Education, Face to Face Health and Counseling, St. Paul, Minnesota.

Current Research

Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching and Learning-"Political Engagement Project." HECUA's Metro Urban Studies Term is one of 20 programs or courses that are part of a nation-wide study on courses that foster political engagement among college students. As Director and primary faculty of the Metro Urban Studies Term I have been invited to be a part of the research team for this 3-year longitudinal study.

PUBLICATIONS, PAPERS, OTHER RESEARCH

"An Organizing Approach to Teaching: From Silos to Public Work and Engaged Scholarship" "Higher Education Exchange." (May 2003)

"The Entrepreneurial Gloss: The Myth of Small Business Job Growth" in Schram Sanford and Philip T. Neisser. Tales of the State: Narrative in Contemporary U.S. Politics and Public Policy(New York: Rowman and Littlefield Publishers, Inc.1997).

"The Employment Outcomes of Public-Sector Urban Import Substitution Programs in Chicago." International Journal of Public Administration, (1994).

"Job Impact Analysis: The Chicago Model for Bridging the Gap Between Economic Development and Employment and Training Programs." The Partnership Journal (May, 1989).

Conference Papers and Presentation

"Action Research as a Pedagogical Tool"- panel at Collaboration for Teaching and Learning Annual Conference- November, 2004.

"Anti-War Politics in the United States" Presented at the Annual Conference on Globalization, Oslo, Norway, 2004.

"A Context for Meaning- The HECUA Model; Preparing Students for Deriving Meaning from Work in the Field," Workshop for the 2000 conference of The Collaboration for Teaching and Learning, Minneapolis, MN.

"Democracy Theory and Public Work," Workshop at the National Society for Experiential Education, 1999, San Diego, CA.

"The HECUA Model" Presentation at the 1997 conference of the National Society of Experiential Education, Salt Lake City, Utah.

" Teaching Political Process Theory for Student Engagement," Workshop for Minnesota Campus Compact Conference, Summer, 1996.

"Public-Sector Urban Import Substitution; Economic Promises and Political Obstacles," Paper delivered to The 39th North American

Meetings of the Regional Sciences Association International, Chicago, Illinois. November 13-15, 1992.

"The Community-Labor Agenda: Social Justice and Union Revitalization," Paper delivered to the Iowa Conference of Political Scientists, Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. November 9, 1991.

Faculty Development Workshops Provided

February, 2005 Carleton College Faculty Development Seminar

October, 2004 Diakonhjemmet College, Oslo, Norway. Provided faculty development workshop on Methods of Assessment and Evaluation.

January, 2003 Williams College Faculty Development. Provided workshop in experiential pedagogy for faculty and dean of academics affairs.

August, 2003 Workshop for Deans and Presidents of colleges and universities that are members of The Higher Education Consortium for Urban Affairs.

August, 2002 St. Olaf Faculty Development. Provided workshop for faculty who would teach January Terms in Collaboration with HECUA in 2003.

August, 2001 St. Olaf Faculty Development. Provided workshop for faculty who would teach January Terms in Collaboration with HECUA in 2002.

May, 2001 Williams College. Workshop on the Theory and Practice of Experiential Education.

April, 2001 University of Minnesota. Workshop provided on the Foundations and Practice of Experiential Education for the Career and Community Learning Center, Minneapolis Campus.

October, 2000 In-Service workshop for HECUA's Scandinavian Urban Studies Term faculty, Oslo, Norway.

November, 2000 Augustana College. Two day workshop with Nan Kari on the Foundations and Practice of Experiential Education for Civic Engagement.

Spring, 1999 In Service for faculty of HECUA's Community

"Economic Impact Analysis of Capital Expansion Program at Logan International Airport" (1990). For Massachusetts Port Authority.

"Impact of the Potential Stewart-Warner Company Shut-down in Chicago" (1988). For a community-labor industrial retention coalition attempting to prevent the shut-down.

Most of the following policy papers represent research undertaken between 1986-89 in my capacity as Director of Policy Research for the Mayor's Office of Employment and Training, City of Chicago.

"A Study of Occupational Opportunities for Chicago's Youth," City of Chicago(1988). Labor market analysis for The Mayor's Education Summit. Provided the information base for a hiring compact between Chicago businesses and the Board of Education.

"The Mayor's Urban Agenda" (1987). Co-author of economic development and employment and training sections of this document. The document was used by Mayor Washington in lobbying Congress on behalf of cities in his capacity as Chairman of The National Conference of Mayors.

"Education and the Economy: The Mayor's Education Summit" (1986). For Mayor's Educational Summit, City of Chicago.

"Analysis of the Potential Impacts of Protected Manufacturing Districts in Chicago" (1988). For testimony before the Chicago Plan Commission.

"Estimated Impact of a Potential Plant Shut-Down at LTV Steel in Chicago" (1988). For City's Task Force on Steel and for use by Department of Economic Development in the negotiations with LTV.

"Potential Economic Impacts of Alternative City of Chicago Franchise Options With Commonwealth Edison"(1989). For City's negotiations with Commonwealth Edison whose franchise expired in 1990.

POLICY EXPERIENCE AND PUBLIC SERVICE

Board of Directors- Jane Addams Resource Corporation (Chicago, Illinois). Community development corporation that develops community-owned enterprises, provides training and technical assistance for area manufacturers and operates training

Internships in Latin America program, Quito, Ecuador.

June, 1998      Viterbo College. Faculty development workshop on Theory and practice of experiential education.

Invited Lectures

"Law and the Economics of Poverty", William Mitchell College of Law, April, 2004.

"Critical Education" Macalester College course on Philosophy of Education, April, 2000.

" Foundations of Experiential Education" Augsburg College, 1999

" The HECUA Model of Experiential Education," Guest Presenter in Master Degree Course on Experiential Education, Univeristy of Minnesota, 1998.

"Global Restructuring and Urban Politics," Campus lecture at Macalester College, 1996.

"Unemployment and Mental Health: The Impact of the New Federalism on Workers in the United States." Campus lecture delivered at Valparaíso University, March 30, 1992.

"The Double-Squeeze: The Politics and Consequences of Gentrification and Deindustrialization in Chicago," Campus lecture delivered at Macalester College, February 5, 1992.

"Corporate and Governmental Response to the Profit Squeeze of the Mid-1970's: Impacts on Employment and Housing in Major U.S. Cities." Campus lecture delivered at Carlton College, October 15, 1992.

Policy Papers and Research

"Jobs and Neighborhood Vitality: The Economic Impact of a Fully-Funded Capital Improvement Program"(February, 1992). Prepared for The Neighborhood Capital Budget Group, Chicago, Illinois. Study successfully used to lobby City government for $300 million bond issue for infrastructure.

programs for economically disadvantaged youth.
1992-4.

Board of Directors- North Business Industrial Council (Chicago, Illinois). Community development corporation specializing in industrial retention organizing. 1991-1992.

Board of Directors- The Good News Educational Workshop (Chicago, Illinois). Private neighborhood school for economically and educationally disadvantaged elementary school children.

Advisory Committee- Local Economic and Employment Development Council (Chicago, Illinois). Community development corporation. 1992 to 1994.

Ongoing Consultant- Neighborhood Capital Budget Group (Chicago, Illinois). Coalition of 120 community-based organizations that lobby for increased infrastructure spending in support of neighborhood revitalization.

Member- Development Subcabinet: City of Chicago.
1986-89.

Cabinet Member- Cabinet: Mayor's Office of Employment and Training-City of Chicago. 1986-1989.

Member- Mayor's Education Summit: City of Chicago.
Chairman of Business Liaison Committee. Coordinated business participation in Chicago education reform process. 1986-1987.

Chairperson Tax Increment Financing Committee: City of Chicago. 1988-1989.

Member- General Assistance Restructuring Advisory Committee. Intergovernmental group set up to amend the rules of the State of Illinois' General Assistance Restructuring Act of 1987. 1987.

Member- District Five Planning Council: St. Paul, Mn.
1976-1977.

Member- Clergy and Laity Concerned Human Security, Peace and Jobs Task Force. Minneapolis, MN. 1976-1980.